As the election is made without traverse, the examiner is hereby authorized to delete claim 11 by examiner's amendment upon allowance of claims 1-10. Applicants advise that they intend to file a divisional application directed to the non-elected and patentably distinct method, including the subject matter of non-elected claim 11. The cancellation of claim 11 from the present application and the filing of a divisional application is intended to be without prejudice to the present invention and without prejudice to applicants' rights, including those rights provided by Sections 121, 120 and 119.

Applicants respectfully await the results of a first examination on the merits of the elected subject matter of claims 1-10.

Respectfully submitted,
